American Body/Politic: A Deleuzian Approach (Paperback)

By Bernd Herzogenrath

University Press of New England, United States, 2010.

Paperback. Book Condition: New. 231 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Bernd Herzogenrath s An American Body Politic is a study of the intersection between the material, biological body and body as political and cultural metaphor in American politics, religion, literature, and popular culture. Deeply influenced by the thought of Gilles Deleuze, Herzogenrath s approach to American culture encompasses endless possibilities and potentials, eschewing the mechanic and structural. He traipses through American history and culture, pausing to examine such varied facets as the Puritans two bodies, Anne Hutchinson and the Antinomian Controversy, Cotton Mather and smallpox, the poetics politics of Whitman, Henry Adams s stroll along the shores of complexity, and the Detroit-based techno music of today.
