

Praying Through Leviticus Praying Through the Bible Volume 3

By Troy Schmidt

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 104 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.2in. Leviticus gets down and dirty. Whether its blood, bodily fluids, disgusting growths, painful sores or the horrible sexual sins between family members, Leviticus covers it all. Leviticus is also very detailed, excruciatingly, to the point you wonder why we as sinners always look for a way out to justify our mistakes, but Leviticus says sorry no excuse accepted. There's a lot of information about priests and festivals, many of those practices we don't use today, so it makes someone wonder, is Leviticus relevant? Leviticus is relevant because it reveals the extent that God would go to make his people holy. Sin is dirty, but God has a plan to cleanse us from that sin, through a priest who came down to the earth and sacrificed himself. As we read Leviticus we should be happy that today our faith in Christ substitutes for all the ceremony and dress required by Old Testament Law. We should read Leviticus not being nonchalant about our sins, but meticulous in making sure our lives stay pure. Leviticus is about holiness and as we pray through...
