SPEECHES OF J.N. DOLPH, OF OREGON, IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES, FIRST SESSION, FIFTIETH CONGRESS

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 50 pages. Original publisher: Washington, DC : U. S. G. P. O. , Supt. of Docs. , 2008. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)244390809 Subject: Depository libraries -- United States -- Handbooks, manuals, etc. Excerpt: . . . Designation Handbook for Federal Depository Libraries Sample Letter from State Librarian Approving Designation to Elected Official The Honorable Name (address) Dear Name : I understand that the Name Library is interested in being designated as a Federal depository library. It is also my understanding that you have an available designation which could be used for this purpose. As you know, the State Library is required to make recommendations to the appropriate elected official. Since the choice of a depository will affect depository services for years to come, the State Library has taken this responsibility very seriously. I have carefully reviewed the arguments presented to me by the Name Library, by the depository already located in your district, and by the regional librarian. It is with great pleasure that I recommend that you designate the Name Library as a Federal depository library. In recent years the Name Library has greatly expanded their services and staff. In fact, they have recently opened a magnificent new building which would be an appropriate site for housing Federal documents. As you know, the (local) community is rapidly expanding and location of a Federal depository at the Name Library would not only serve people within the local area, but a number of surrounding communities on the eastern plains. I believe the Name Library understands the responsibilities of a Federal depository library. The librarys administration and staff seem fully committed to providing superior public service to all members of the general public. Should you have any...
