Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Large Print. 246 x 189 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Journey Everyone Avoids is areal story that analyses the true meaning of life whether on high class or something else. Everyone loves and wishes the very best of life. A unique true story of my personal journey from ordinary humble beginnings to a very spiritual to educational awakening to professional realisation. Many lessons learnt and many rescues accomplished. There are some funny stories and light entertainment. Some will shock and surprise you, some of it will keep you awake all night. The berated bonus photos of motivation which are very rare especially the labeling, are the mirror of the world. It may sound easy life, but my book cautions you well in advance that the difficulties of life are but putting structures of your own desire is a corner stone. Well, in my childhood, I challenged and conquered most concerns which gave me this signature to address them publicly. The intent of this information contained herein, is for you to have a better understanding in planing a journey of your desire and to give you lots of progress samples. Literally, marriages have breaking points; All families have wounds; All wars have costs and All journeys have road blocks and pot holes that slows down our momentum and expectations of everyone of us; that is the journey! Like many families, we had to face the pressures of everyday life-poverty, education, health and happiness or safety were toll order which naturally occurs in the life of every human being.The facts of life are nothing but walking the journey of life. Whether male or female, young or old, illiterate or learned; the principles of my book, depicts, elaborates...
