Coloring is an activity which has been associated for a long time with kids and it has been taken for granted that, as we mature, we put aside our crayons and turn our attention to more grown-up pursuits. However, in recent years we have witnessed this wisdom being rejected and coloring for grown-ups has become a widespread pastime. But why has coloring for grown-ups become so popular? There are many explanations for the explosion in adult coloring, but here are just a few. Coloring Relieves Stress And Anxiety Psychiatrists have known for a long time that coloring relaxes the fear center of the brain and allows your mind to rest. In fact the founder of analytical psychology, Carl Jung, gave his patients mandalas to color more than 100 years ago. In today's hectic world the stress reducing properties of coloring are more valuable than ever. Coloring Trains Your Brain To Focus Keeping inside the lines as you color a simple...
