

On Shooting - Letters To Young Sportsmen - Part III. (Paperback)

By Douglas Cairns

Read Books, United Kingdom, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .TO sportsmen of riper years several seasons of almost total abstinence from social shooting may have meant a certain amount of inconvenience inseparable from the upsetting of crusted habits. Even those who took it thus were in a minority. Most of us had enough to do otherwise, and too much by far to think about. But to the youth of Britain those four years are a dead loss in the matter of sporting education and that the youth of Britain intends to shoot, the market for lets, and even for sales, is a sufficient indication. Even the boy of unmilitary age prior to the Armistice has lacked that experience which goes far to shape his prospective qualifications, not only as a good shot, but also-and this is far more important-as a safe one, and, incidentally, as a welcome guest now and perhaps as a tactful host in the future. For such a desirable summation is the result of observation of the best models and imitation of their technique. Going out with a keeper may teach a...
