Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Part-time teacher, Hugh Bradley has a lot on his plate: his mother has throat cancer, his 40th birthday is approaching at speed and his innocent liaison with the attractive but increasingly forward Alex just might wreck his marriage in the most unexpected of ways. His fledgling writing career isn't going too well either. He needs to publish six magazine articles before he turns forty or his hard-working and increasingly jealous wife, Beth will run out of patience, send him back to the chalk face full-time and very possibly remove his genitalia into the bargain. Hugh's job-share partner, the handsome Luke Johnstone, isn't exactly helping either. His philandering ways could come back to haunt them when the pair are forced to re-apply for their jobs at the deceptively idyllic Pebble Bay Primary School. Of course it's possible that none of this will matter if Hugh can just convince famous author Thomas Chandler to grant him a lucrative interview at his secret Dorset hideaway. As his mother's health deteriorates Hugh must confront some unpleasant truths about himself and those he loves. But nothing is quite what it seems. Einstein called reality a persistent illusion. Perhaps he was right. You decide. But be careful. Nothing - including your five senses - can be trusted. SO IT GOES is a novel that mixes comedy and tragedy (not always appropriately) and poses the big questions: who, what, why, where, how and most importantly when WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING ABOUT SO IT GOES: I've read worse. The author's wife. For the love of God, buy it! The author's bank manager. MEET HUGH BRADLEY: He s...
